

ACADEMIC CATALOG

Catalog Limitations

This catalog describes policies, programs, and procedures of Plymouth State University that are in effect at the time of its preparation, June 2023.

Plymouth State University reserves the right to change any of its rules and regulations at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction, and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, to alter course content, to change the calendar, and to impose or increase tuition or other fees similarly is reserved. All changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those who are already enrolled in the University. The provisions of the catalog are not, and should not be construed to be, a contract between students and the University. Administrative, academic, and financial policies and requirements may change each year. These policies pertain to all students enrolled in the academic year in which each new catalog is in effect.

Affirmative Action Statement

Plymouth State University, in accordance with federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, veteran's status, or disability, in admission or access to, treatment of, or employment in its programs or activities. Inquiries regarding this policy should be made to the Title IX Coordinator, Plymouth State University. Further inquiries may also be addressed to the
