CHILDHOOD STUDIES (CD)

CD 1000 Children and Youth in Schools and Community (3)
Explores the various ways professionals can positively contribute to the lives of children and youth. Examines the roles and relationships of schools, communities, families, and professionals in education. Students are exposed to educational technologies that relate to managing learning activities, delivering materials to learners, and assessing learning through authentic assessment. Falls and Springs. (TECO)